NOTICE TO APPLICANTS: This employer complies with the Americans With Disabilities Act of 1990. During the interview process, you may be asked questions concerning your ability to perform job-related functions. If you are given a conditional offer of employment, you may be required to complete a post-job offer medical history questionnaire and/or undergo a medical examination. If required, all entering employees in the same job category will be subject to the same medical questionnaire and/or examination and all information will be kept confidential and in separate files.

APPLICANT'S STATEMENT

I certify that the answers given herein are true and complete to the best of my knowledge. I authorize the investigation of all matters contained in this application and hereby give the Employer permission to contact schools, previous employers, references, and others, and hereby release the Employer from any liability as a result of such contact. I understand that misrepresentations, omissions of facts or incomplete information requested in this application may remove me from further consideration for employment. In addition, if employed, any misrepresentations or omissions of facts called for in this application will be cause for dismissal at any time without any previous notice.

Applicants accepted for employment should clearly understand that while we make every effort to provide steady, continuous work, we have no employment contracts, and we cannot guarantee the permanence of any position. Job tenure can be affected by many factors including business/economic conditions, changes in laws or Employer policies, conformity to our work rules, job performance, etc. And of course, employees may elect to leave on their own accord to seek other jobs.

I understand that my employment with the Employer is for no specific term and may be terminated by me or the Employer with or without notice or cause at any time. I further understand that no oral promise, Employer policy, custom, business practice or other procedure (including the Employer's Personnel Handbook or any personnel manuals) constitutes an employment contract or modification of the at-will employment relationship between me and the Employer.

The contents of any employee handbook or personnel manuals, as well as other Employer policies and practices, are subject to change or modification by the Employer, solely at its discretion, without notice. I also understand that no supervisor or other official of the Employer (except its Chief Executive Officer, in writing) has the authority to enter into any agreement with me or to make any agreement contrary to the foregoing.

We conduct our business with the highest possible degree of safety and efficiency. Because of this, the Employer may require applicants for employment to undergo blood and/or urinalysis screening for drug or alcohol use as part of our pre-placement physical examination. In addition, all employees of the Employer are subject to blood tests or urinalysis screening for drug or alcohol use.

This application will remain active for ninety (90) days. Any applicant wishing to be considered for employment beyond ninety (90) days should reapply.

This Employer is an equal employment opportunity employer. We adhere to a policy of making employment decisions without regard to race, color, age, sex, religion, national origin, disability or marital status. We assure you that your opportunity for employment with this Employer depends solely upon your qualifications.

EMPLOYEE DATA RECORD

CoAdvantage and your Worksite Employer are subject to certain governmental recordkeeping and reporting requirements for the administration of civil rights law and regulations. In order to comply with these laws, CoAdvantage invites employees to voluntarily self-identify their race and ethnicity by completing this Data Record.

Submission of this information is voluntary and refusal to provide it will not subject you to any adverse treatment. The information will be kept confidential and will only be used in accordance with the provisions of applicable laws, executive orders, and regulations, including those that require the information to be summarized and reported to the federal government for civil rights enforcement. When reported, data will not identify any specific individual.

The Employee Data Record will be kept in a Confidential File.

Voluntary Self-Identification of Veterans

Definitions

This employer is a Government contractor subject to the Vietnam Era Veterans' Readjustment Assistance Act of 1974, as amended by the Jobs for Veterans Act of 2002, 38 U.S.C. 4212 (VEVRAA), which requires Government contractors to take affirmative action to employ and advance in employment: (1) disabled veterans; (2) recently separated veterans; (3) active duty wartime or campaign badge veterans; and (4) Armed Forces service medal veterans. These classifications are defined as follows:

A "disabled veteran" is one of the following:

- A veteran of the U.S. military, ground, naval or air service who is entitled to compensation (or who but for the receipt of military retired pay would be entitled to compensation) under laws administered by the Secretary of Veterans Affairs; or
- A person who was discharged or released from active duty because of a service-connected disability.

A "recently separated veteran" means any veteran during the three-year period beginning on the date of such veteran's discharge or release from active duty in the U.S. military, ground, naval, or air service.

An "active duty wartime or campaign badge veteran" means a veteran who served on active duty in the U.S. military, ground, naval or air service during a war, or in a campaign or expedition for which a campaign badge has been authorized under the laws administered by the Department of Defense.

An "Armed forces service medal veteran" means a veteran who, while serving on active duty in the U.S. military, ground, naval or air service, participated in a United States military operation for which an Armed Forces service medal was awarded pursuant to Executive Order 12985.

Protected veterans may have additional rights under USERRA—the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act. In particular, if you were absent from employment in order to perform service in the uniformed service, you may be entitled to be reemployed by your employer in the position you would have obtained with reasonable certainty if not for the absence due to service. For more information, call the U.S. Department of Labor's Veterans Employment and Training Service (VETS), toll-free, at 1-866-4-USA-DOL.

Self-Identification

As a Government contractor subject to VEVRAA, we are required to submit a report to the United States Department of Labor each year identifying the number of our employees belonging to each specified "protected veteran" category. If you believe you belong to any of the categories of protected veterans listed above, please indicate by checking the appropriate box below. If you are not a veteran, select box 1 OR select the box(s) that apply to your veteran status.

I am not a veteran. (I did not serve in the military.)

I belong to the following classifications of protected veterans (Choose all that apply):

DISABLED VETERAN

RECENTLY SEPARATED VETERAN

Military Discharge Date (MM/DD/YYYY):

ACTIVE WARTIME OR CAMPAIGN BADGE VETERAN

ARMED FORCES SERVICE MEDAL VETERAN

I am NOT a protected veteran. (I served in the military but do not fall into any veteran categories listed above.)

I choose not to identify my veteran status.

Reasonable Accommodation Notice

If you are a disabled veteran it would assist us if you tell us whether there are accommodations we could make that would enable you to perform the essential functions of the job, including special equipment, changes in the physical layout of the job, changes in the way the job is customarily performed, provision of personal assistance services or other accommodations. This information will assist us in making reasonable accommodations for your disability.

Submission of this information is voluntary and refusal to provide it will not subject you to any adverse treatment. The information provided will be used only in ways that are not inconsistent with the Vietnam Era Veterans' Readjustment Assistance Act of 1974, as amended.

The information you submit will be kept confidential, except that (i) supervisors and managers may be informed regarding restrictions on the work or duties of disabled veterans, and regarding necessary accommodations; (ii) first aid and safety personnel may be informed, when and to the extent appropriate, if you have a condition that might require emergency treatment; and (iii) Government officials engaged in enforcing laws administered by the Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs, or enforcing the Americans with Disabilities Act, may be informed.

Why are you being asked to complete this form?

Because we do business with the government, we must reach out to, hire, and provide equal opportunity to qualified people with disabilities.¹ To help us measure how well we are doing, we are asking you to tell us if you have a disability or if you ever had a disability. Completing this form is voluntary, but we hope that you will choose to fill it out. If you are applying for a job, any answer you give will be kept private and will not be used against you in any way.

If you already work for us, your answer will not be used against you in any way. Because a person may become disabled at any time, we are required to ask all of our employees to update their information every five years. You may voluntarily self-identify as having a disability on this form without fear of any punishment because you did not identify as having a disability earlier.

How do I know if I have a disability?

You are considered to have a disability if you have a physical or mental impairment or medical condition that substantially limits a major life activity, or if you have a history or record of such an impairment or medical condition.

Disabilities include, but are not limited to:

- Blindness
- Autism
- Bipolar disorder
- Post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD)
- Deafness
- Cerebral palsy
- Major depression
- Obsessive compulsive disorder
- Cancer
- HIV/AIDS
- Multiple sclerosis (MS)
- Impairments requiring the use of a wheelchair
- Diabetes
- Schizophrenia
- Missing limbs or partially missing limbs
- Intellectual disability (previously called mental retardation)
- Epilepsy
- Muscular dystrophy

Please check one of the boxes below:

- YES, I HAVE A DISABILITY (or previously had a disability)
- NO, I DON'T HAVE A DISABILITY
- I DON'T WISH TO ANSWER

Reasonable Accommodation Notice

Federal law requires employers to provide reasonable accommodation to qualified individuals with disabilities. Please tell us if you require a reasonable accommodation to apply for a job or to perform your job. Examples of reasonable accommodation include making a change to the application process or work procedures, providing documents in an alternate format, using a sign language interpreter, or using specialized equipment.

ⁱ Section 503 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended. For more information about this form or the equal employment obligations of Federal contractors, visit the U.S. Department of Labor's Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs (OFCCP) website at www.dol.gov/ofccp.

PUBLIC BURDEN STATEMENT: According to the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 no persons are required to respond to a collection of information unless such collection displays a valid OMB control number. This survey should take about 5 minutes to complete.
